1. Electronic Case Filing for Nonincarcerated Parties

- A. ECF Filing by Pro Se Parties. Any nonincarcerated pro se party who wishes to participate in electronic case filing (“ECF”) should complete a Motion for Permission for Electronic Case Filing, available in the Pro Se Intake Unit or at <http://nysd.uscourts.gov/file/forms/motion-for-permission-for-electronic-case-filing-for-pro-se-cases>. The form should be mailed to the Pro Se Intake Unit, 500 Pearl Street, Room 200, New York, NY, 10007.
- B. Consent to Electronic Service by Pro Se Parties. Any nonincarcerated pro se party who wishes to receive documents in their case electronically (by e-mail) instead of by regular mail may consent to electronic service by filing a Pro Se (Nonprisoner) Consent & Registration Form to Receive Documents Electronically, available in the Pro Se Intake Unit or at <http://nysd.uscourts.gov/file/forms/consent-to-electronic-service-for-pro-se-cases>.

2. Communications

- A. By a Pro Se Party. All communications with the Court by a pro se party must be sent to the Pro Se Intake Unit. No documents or Court filings should be sent directly to Chambers.
- B. By Parties Represented by Counsel. Communications with the Court by a represented party shall be governed by Judge Schofield’s Individual Rules and Practices in Civil Cases, available at <http://nysd.uscourts.gov/judge/Schofield>. Except for cases in which the pro se party has received permission to participate in ECF, such communications must include a separate proof of service indicating that the pro se party was served with a copy of the communication.
- C. Requests for Adjournments or Extensions of Time. All requests for adjournments or extensions of time must be made in writing and must state: (1) the original date(s); (2) the number of previous requests for adjournment or extension; (3) whether these previous requests were granted or denied; and (4) whether the adversary consents and, if not, the reasons given by the adversary for refusing to consent. If the requested adjournment or extension affects any other scheduled dates, a represented party must submit a proposed Revised Scheduling Order. A pro se party may, but is not required to, submit a proposed Revised Scheduling Order. Requests for extensions of deadlines regarding a matter that has been referred to a Magistrate Judge shall be directed to that assigned Magistrate Judge.

Absent an emergency, any request for adjournment of a court conference shall be made at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled appearance. Requests for extensions ordinarily will be denied if made after the expiration of the original deadline.

3. Filing of Papers

- A. By a Pro Se Party. If the pro se party is not participating in ECF, all papers to be filed with the Court by a pro se party, along with any courtesy copies of those papers, must be sent to the Pro Se Intake Unit, United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, Room 200, New York, New York 10007.
- B. By Parties Represented by Counsel. Except for cases in which the pro se party has received permission to participate in ECF or has consented to electronic service, counsel in pro se cases must serve a pro se party with a paper copy of any document that is filed electronically and include a separate proof of service indicating that the pro se party was served with a copy of the filed document. Submissions filed without proof that the pro se party was served will not be considered.

4. Discovery

- A. Discovery Requests. All requests for discovery must be sent to counsel for the opposing party. Discovery requests must not be sent to the Court.
- B. Discovery Disputes. The parties shall confer amongst themselves with respect to discovery demands prior to raising any issue with the Court. Plaintiff should not contact the Court regarding discovery disputes unless he has first attempted to resolve the issue with the Defendants without the assistance of the Court.

5. Motions

- A. Filing and Service. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, papers filed in opposition to a motion must be served and filed within four weeks of service of the motion papers, and reply papers, if any, must be served and filed within two weeks of receipt of opposition papers.
- B. Courtesy Copy. All motion papers should include one courtesy copy. All courtesy copies shall be clearly marked as such.
- C. Oral Argument. The Court will determine whether argument will be heard and, if so, will advise the parties of the argument date.
- D. Pro Se Notices. Parties who file a motion to dismiss, a motion for judgment on the pleadings or a motion for summary judgment must provide the pro se party with a copy of the notices required under Local Civil Rules 12.1 or 56.2.

6. Initial Case Management Conference. The Court will generally schedule an initial case management conference within four months of the filing of the Complaint. An incarcerated party may not be able to attend this or other conferences, but may be able to participate by telephone or video conference.

7. Trial Documents

A. Pretrial Statement. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, within 30 days of the completion of discovery, a pro se party shall file a concise, written Pretrial Statement. This Statement need take no particular form, but it must contain the following: (1) a statement of the facts the pro se party hopes to prove at trial; (2) a list of all documents or other physical objects that the pro se party plans to put into evidence at trial; and (3) a list of the names and addresses of all witnesses the pro se party intends to have testify at trial. The Statement must be sworn by the pro se party to be true and accurate based on the facts known by the pro se party. The pro se party shall file an original of this Statement with the Pro Se Intake Unit two weeks after service of the pro se party's Statement; counsel for any represented party must file and serve a similar Statement containing the same information.

B. Other Pretrial Filings. At the time of filing the Pretrial Statement, any parties represented by counsel must also submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, if the case is to be tried before only a judge without a jury, or a proposed jury charge, if it will be tried before a jury. The pro se party may also file either proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law or a proposed jury charge, but is not required to do so.

If you have any questions about these rules and practices, please contact the Pro Se Intake Unit at (212) 805-0175.
